A guide to Cambridge English: Key

Cambridge English: Key, also known as the Key English Test (KET), is part of a comprehensive range of exams developed by Cambridge English Language Assessment. Cambridge English exams have similar characteristics but are designed for different purposes and different levels of English language ability. Cambridge English: Key is at Level A2 (Waystage) of the Council of Europe's Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). It has also been accredited in the UK as an Entry Level 2 ESOL certificate in the UK's National Qualifications Framework.

Examination	Council of Europe Framework Level	UK National Qualifications Framework Level
Cambridge English: Proficiency Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE)	C2	3
Cambridge English: Advanced Certificate in Advanced English (CAE)	C1	2
Cambridge English: First First Certificate in English (FCE)	B2	1
Cambridge English: Preliminary Preliminary English Test (PET)	B1	Entry 3
Cambridge English: Key Key English Test (KET)	A2	Entry 2

Cambridge English: Key is accepted by employers, further education and government departments for business, study and immigration purposes. It is also useful preparation for higher level exams, such as Cambridge English: Preliminary and Cambridge English: First.

Cambridge English: Key is a great first step in English. Preparing for the exam will build your confidence in dealing with everyday written and spoken English at a basic level, for example expressing and understanding simple opinions; filling in forms; and writing short, simple letters.

Cambridge English: Key is also available in a version with exam content and topics specifically targeted at the interests and experience of school-aged learners. Cambridge English: Key for Schools, also known as the Key English Test (KET) for Schools, follows exactly the same format and level and leads to the same certificate as Cambridge English: Key.

Paper 1 Reading and Writing

Paper format

The Reading section contains five parts. The Writing section contains four parts.

Number of questions

There is a total of 56 questions: 35 in Reading and 21 in Writing.

Sources

Authentic and adapted-authentic real-world notices, newspaper and magazine articles, simplified encyclopaedia entries.

Answering

Candidates indicate answers either by shading lozenges (Reading) or by writing answers (Writing) on an answer sheet.

Timing

1 hour 10 minutes.

Marks

Each item carries one mark, except for question 56 (Part 9), which is marked out of 5. This gives a total of 60 marks, which is weighted to a final mark out of 50. This represents 50% of the total marks for the whole examination.

Preparing for the Reading section

To prepare for the Reading section, you should read the type of English used in everyday life; for example, short newspaper and magazine articles, advertisements, tourist brochures, instructions and recipes, etc. It is also a good idea to practise reading short communicative messages, including notes, emails and cards. Remember, you won't always need to understand every word to be able to do a task in the exam.

Before the exam, think about the time you need to do each part and check you know how to record your answers on the answer sheet (see page 148).

Part	Task type and format	Task focus	Number of questions
1	Matching. Matching five prompt sentences to eight notices, plus an example.	Gist understanding of real-world notices. Reading for main message.	5
2	Three-option multiple choice. Five sentences (plus an integrated example) with connecting link of topic or storyline.	Reading and identifying appropriate vocabulary.	5

3	Three-option multiple choice. Five discrete three-option multiple-choice items (plus an example) focusing on verbal exchange patterns. AND Matching. Five matching items (plus an example) in a continuous dialogue, selecting from eight possible responses.	Functional language. Reading and identifying the appropriate response.	10
4	Right / Wrong / Doesn't say OR Three-option multiple choice. One long text or three short texts adapted from authentic newspaper or magazine articles. Seven three-option multiple-choice items or Right / Wrong / Doesn't say items, plus an example.	Reading for detailed understanding and main idea(s).	7
5	Multiple-choice cloze. A text adapted from an original source, for example an encyclopaedia entry, newspaper or magazine article. Eight three-option multiple-choice items, plus an integrated example.	Reading and identifying appropriate structural words (auxiliary verbs, modal verbs, determiners, pronouns, prepositions, conjunctions, etc.).	8

Preparing for the Writing section

To prepare for the Writing section, you should take the opportunity to write short messages in real-life situations, for example to your teacher or other students. These can include invitations, arrangements for meetings, apologies for missing a class, or notices about lost property. They can be handwritten or sent as email.

Before the exam, think about the time you need to do each part and check you know how to record your answers on the answer sheet (see page 149).

Part	Task type and format	Task focus	Number of questions
6	Word completion. Five dictionary definition type sentences (plus an example). Five words to identify and spell.	Reading and identifying appropriate vocabulary, and spelling.	5
7	Open cloze. Text type that candidates can be expected to write, for example a short letter or email. Ten spaces to fill with one word which must be spelled correctly, (plus an integrated example).	Reading and identifying appropriate words, with a focus on structure and / or vocabulary.	10
8	Information transfer. Two short authentic texts (emails, adverts, etc.) to prompt completion of another text (form, note, etc.). Five spaces to fill with one or more words or numbers (plus an integrated example).	Reading and writing appropriate words or numbers, with a focus on content and accuracy.	5
9	Guided writing. Either a short input text or a rubric to prompt a written response. Three messages to communicate in writing.	Writing a short message, note, email or postcard of 25–35 words.	1

Part 6

This part is about vocabulary. You have to produce words and spell them correctly. The words will all be linked to the same topic, for example jobs or food. You have to read a definition for each one and complete the word. The first letter of each word is given to help you.

Part 7

This part is about grammar and vocabulary. You have to complete a short, gapped text of the type you could be expected to write, such as a note, email or short letter. You must spell all the missing words correctly.

Part 8

This part tests both reading and writing. You have to use the information in two short texts (for example a note, email or advertisement) to complete a document such as a form, notice or diary entry. You will need to understand the vocabulary used on forms, for example name, cost and time. You will need to write only words or phrases in your answers, but you must spell them correctly.

Part 9

You have to write a short message (25–35 words). You are told who you are writing to and why, and you must include three pieces of information. To gain top marks, all three parts of the message must be included in your answer, so it is important to read the question carefully and plan what you are going to write. Before the exam, practise writing answers of the correct length. You will lose marks for writing fewer than 25 words, and it is not a good idea to write answers that are too long.

Mark Scheme for Part 9

There are five marks for Part 9. Minor grammatical and spelling mistakes are acceptable, but to get five marks you must write a clear message and include all three pieces of information.

Mark	Criteria
5	All three parts of the message clearly communicated. Only minor spelling errors or occasional grammatical errors.
4	All three parts of the message communicated. Some non-impeding errors in spelling and grammar or some awkwardness of expression.
3	All three parts of the message attempted. Expression requires interpretation by the reader and contains impeding errors in spelling and grammar.	Two parts of the message clearly communicated. Only minor spelling errors or occasional grammatical errors.
2	Only two parts of the message communicated. Some errors in spelling and grammar. The errors in expression may require patience and interpretation by the reader and impede communication.
1	Only one part of the message communicated.
0	Question unattempted, or totally incomprehensible response.

Paper 2 Listening

Paper format

This paper contains five parts.

Number of questions

25

Task types

Matching, multiple choice, gap-fill.

Sources

All texts are based on authentic situations, and each part is heard twice.

Answering

Candidates indicate answers either by shading lozenges (Parts 1–3) or by writing answers (Parts 4 and 5) on an answer sheet.

Timing

About 30 minutes, including 8 minutes to transfer answers.

Marks

Each item carries one mark. This gives a total of 25 marks, which represents 25% of the total marks for the examination.

Preparing for the Listening test

The best preparation for the Listening test is to listen to authentic spoken English for your level. Apart from in class, other sources of English include films, TV, DVDs, songs, the internet, English clubs, and other speakers of English such as tourists, guides, friends and family.

You will hear the instructions for each task on the recording and see them on the exam paper. There are pauses in the recording to give you time to look at the questions and to write your answers. You should write your answers on the exam paper as you listen. You will have eight minutes at the end of the test to transfer your answers to the answer sheet (see page 150). Make sure you know how to do this and that you check your answers carefully.

Part	Task type and format	Task focus	Number of questions
1	Three-option multiple choice. Short, neutral or informal dialogues. Five discrete three-option multiple-choice items with pictures (plus an example).	Listening to identify key information (times, prices, days of week, numbers, etc.).	5
2	Matching. Longer informal dialogue. Five items (plus an integrated example) and eight options.	Listening to identify key information.	5
3	Three-option multiple choice. Longer informal or neutral dialogue. Five three-option multiple-choice items (plus an integrated example).	Taking the role of one of the speakers and listening to identify key information.	5
4	Gap-fill. Longer neutral or informal dialogue. Five gaps to fill with one or more words or numbers (plus an integrated example). Recognisable spelling is accepted, except with very high-frequency words (e.g. bus , red) or if spelling is dictated.	Listening and writing down information (including spelling of names, places, etc. as dictated on recording).	5
5	Gap-fill. Longer neutral or informal monologue. Five gaps to fill with one or more words or numbers (plus an integrated example). Recognisable spelling is accepted, except with very high-frequency words (e.g. bus , red) or if spelling is dictated.	Listening and writing down information (including spelling of names, places, etc. as dictated on recording).	5

Paper 3 Speaking

Paper format

The paper contains two parts. The standard format for Paper 3 is two candidates and two examiners. One examiner acts only as an assessor and does not join in the conversation. The other examiner is called the interlocutor and manages the interaction by asking questions and setting up the tasks (see Paper 3 frames on pages 104–115).

Task types

Short exchanges with the interlocutor and an interactive task involving both candidates.

Timing

8–10 minutes per pair of candidates.

Marks

Candidates are assessed on their performance throughout the test. There are a total of 25 marks, making 25% of the total score for the whole examination.

Preparing for the Speaking test

Take every opportunity to practise your English with as many people as possible. Asking and answering questions in simple role plays provides useful practice. These role plays should focus on everyday language and situations, and involve questions about daily activities and familiar experiences. It is also a good idea to practise exchanging information in role plays about things such as the costs and opening times of, for example, a local sports centre.

Part	Task type and format	Task focus	Timing
1	Each candidate interacts with the interlocutor. The interlocutor asks the candidates questions. The interlocutor follows an interlocutor frame to guide the conversation, ensure standardisation, and control the level of input.	Language normally associated with meeting people for the first time, giving information of a factual, personal kind. Bio-data type questions to respond to.	5–6 minutes
2	Candidates interact with each other. The interlocutor sets up the activity using a standardised rubric. Candidates ask and answer questions using prompt material.	Factual information of a non-personal kind related to daily life.	3–4 minutes

Assessment

Throughout the Speaking test the examiners listen to what you say and give you marks for how well you speak English, so you must try to speak about the tasks and answer the examiner's and your partner's questions.

The two examiners mark different aspects of your speaking. One of the examiners (the assessor) will give marks on the following:

Grammar and Vocabulary

This refers to the range of language you use and also how accurately you use grammar and vocabulary.

Pronunciation

This refers to how easy it is to understand what you say. You should be able to say words and sentences that are easy to understand.

Interactive Communication

This refers to how well you can talk about a task, and to your partner and the examiner, and whether you can ask for repetition or clarification if needed.

Band	Grammar and Vocabulary	Pronunciation	Interactive Communication
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Shows a good degree of control of simple grammatical forms.Uses a range of appropriate vocabulary when talking about everyday situations.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Is mostly intelligible, and has some control of phonological features at both utterance and word levels.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">Maintains simple exchanges.Requires very little prompting and support.

0	Performance below Band 1.

The examiner asking the questions (the interlocutor) gives marks for how well you do overall, using a Global Achievement scale.

Band	Global Achievement
5	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Handles communication in everyday situations, despite hesitation.• Constructs longer utterances but is not able to use complex language except in well-rehearsed utterances.

Jann Mardenborough

Jann Mardenborough has loved cars since he was given a toy one as a baby. He loved them so much that when he was eight his father took him to a place where children race small cars called karts. Staff at the kart centre told Jann he drove so well, he might one day become a racing driver. Unfortunately, the kart centre closed soon afterwards, and there wasn't another one near enough to his home that he could get to.

As he couldn't race karts any more, Jann decided to try computer racing games. After lots of practice, he became very good. However, he never told his parents what he was doing. Then, one day, when he was 18, he told them that he was one of the top ten winners of a computer racing competition. They were very surprised. His prize was to drive a real car in a race against the other nine top players.

It was Jann's first time in a racing car, but, amazingly, he won the race! The prize this time was a free course to learn to be a racing driver. He did really well, and has found a job driving in a racing team.

An Amazing Adventure

Erden Eruç is Turkish but now lives in Seattle, USA, with his wife Nancy. In July 2012, he completed an amazing 5-year journey, becoming the first person ever to travel all the way around the world with no help from engines or sails. All he used were his own arms and legs, to cycle, row, and walk around the world.

His plan before beginning the trip was to climb the highest mountain on each of the six continents that he went through. Unfortunately he was only able to climb three of them because of bad weather and money problems.

Erden spent a lot of his time on the trip rowing his boat. His journey across the Pacific Ocean took 312 days. Being alone for that much time was not at all easy, but he kept busy by listening to music and studying Spanish. He took dried food with him and had a water machine to make fresh water out of seawater. However, it only worked on sunny days.

Erden is sure he will have more adventures one day. But at the moment all he wants to do is rest, think about his trip and spend time with Nancy.

David Rawson

David Rawson, 15, is one of the best rowers of his age in the USA. He comes from Connecticut, and spends most of his free time practising on the many rivers near his home.

David's dad Martin also enjoys rowing. 'David's much better than me, but I go with him when I can,' he says. David's mother, Wendy, doesn't go rowing herself but she is happy to take them to and from the rivers in her car.

It's an expensive sport. The Rawsons have seven boats, costing between $1500 and $4000 each. But you can see how important rowing is to the family when you go to their home. There are many photos of David rowing and several rowing boats in the garage.

About 18 months ago, David started rowing on the sea. This sport is similar to surfing except that you sit in a special boat instead of standing on a board. David loves it, and it means he can continue with his sport in the summer when his favourite rivers don't have enough water in them.

Next year David is hoping to go to the Premier Rowing Academy where he'll study rowing as well as all the usual school subjects.

Transcript

This is the Cambridge English: Key, Test One. There are five parts to the test. Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five. We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must NOT speak during the test.

[pause]

PART 1 Now, look at the instructions for Part One.

[pause]

You will hear five short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1 to 5, put a tick under the right answer.

Here is an example:

How many people were at the meeting?

Woman: Were there many people at the meeting?

Man: About thirty.

Woman: That's not many.

Man: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is C.

Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1 One. Which T-shirt does the woman buy?

Woman: Excuse me, have you got any T-shirts for around £10?

Man: We've got this one with a flower on for £8 and some with stars on for £7.

Woman: I'll take the first one you showed me.

Man: OK, I'll put that in a bag for you.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 2 Two. When is the girl's swimming lesson next week?

Girl: What time are the swimming lessons next week? Are they at 10 o'clock as usual?

Man: Sorry, there's a swimming competition from 9 o'clock and it won't finish until 11.

Girl: Will my lesson start after that?

Man: Of course, all lessons will start as soon as the competition finishes.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

Question 3 Three. Which bus stop does the woman need?

Woman: Excuse me, I want to catch a bus to go to the hospital. Which bus do I need? Is it the one in front of the supermarket?

Man: Buses go to the sports centre from there. The one you want is by the train station on West Street.

Woman: Oh, thank you very much.

Man: You're welcome.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 4 Four. Which is the man's raincoat?

Man: Excuse me, I left my raincoat on the bus. Did anyone find it?

Woman: Let me see. We have a few raincoats. I've got one here. It's long and has a belt.

Man: Oh, mine's short. I lost the belt, so it hasn't got one.

Woman: Oh yes, here it is. It's your lucky day!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 5 Five. Which is the office manager?

Woman: Is that the new office manager over there?

Woman 2: Oh yes, with the short hair. When I last saw her, her hair was long.

Woman: And didn't she wear glasses as well?

Woman 2: Yes she did. She looks quite different now doesn't she?

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

That is the end of Part One.

[pause]

PART 2 Now look at Part Two.

[pause]

Listen to Amy and James talking about planning a birthday party. What job is each person going to do? For questions 6 to 10, write a letter A to H next to each person. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

Amy: Are we nearly ready for Sally's party, James? Chris is making the cake, of course.

James: I know, it's going to be amazing! What are you doing Amy?

Amy: I've found a nice room above a restaurant and I'm booking it tomorrow. There's space for fifty guests so we'll be fine. And what about you, James? Are you getting the present?

James: I'm no good at choosing presents, Amy! I'm going to call all Sally's friends and ask them to come to the party. Oh, and I spoke to Claire yesterday.

Amy: What's she doing? If she's free, she can put up some balloons.

James: She's thinking about the music, actually. I know Tom usually plans the music, but this time he's bringing juice and lemonade. There was a big discount at the supermarket so he got lots.

Amy: Excellent! So, that just leaves Jane.

James: She's getting a pair of earrings we can all give Sally for her birthday.

Amy: That's a great idea. It's going to be an amazing party!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

That is the end of Part Two.

[pause]

PART 3

Now look at Part Three.

[pause]

Listen to Jessica talking to Frank about a dance class. For questions 11 to 15, tick A, B or C. You will hear the conversation twice. Look at questions 11 to 15 now. You have twenty seconds.

[pause]

Now listen to the conversation.

Jessica: Hi Frank. Are you coming to the dance class at eight o'clock this evening?

Frank: Hi Jessica. Yes, I finish work at half past seven, but I need to be home by nine. How long is the class?

Jessica: Oh don't worry. The class is forty-five minutes long, not an hour. Some people stay later to do half an hour extra exercise, but you don't have to.

Frank: OK. What do I need to bring?

Jessica: Just wear comfortable sports clothes. You can leave your trainers at home, because the teacher doesn't want us to wear shoes. And bring lots to drink.

Frank: I'm not very fit. Is that a problem?

Jessica: No, there are people of all ages there and lots of them aren't very fit. But tell the teacher if you have never done dance classes before.

Frank: Are the classes expensive?

Jessica: The price has just changed from five pounds to six pounds. It's still a good price, though, because other classes at the sports centre cost eight pounds.

Frank: OK, shall I come to your house at half past seven?

Jessica: I'm going straight from college. There's a café in the sports centre so let's meet there.

Frank: OK, see you later.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

That is the end of Part Three.

[pause]

PART 4

Now look at Part Four.

[pause]

You will hear a woman asking about a tour of a castle. Listen and complete questions 16 to 20. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

Woman: Excuse me, can you tell me about the tours of the castle, please?

Man: Yes, of course. We have three tours a day – at ten a.m., one p.m. and three p.m.

Woman: Thanks. How long does the tour take?

Man: The normal time is forty-five minutes but we ask you to arrive fifteen minutes early so we can check how many people there are. We can't take more than twenty.

Woman: OK, that's great. Do you do a family ticket?

Man: We do, it's twenty-two pounds. Or we have an adult ticket for eight pounds and it's five pounds for children.

Woman: Where do I wait for the tour?

Man: You can wait in the café. Show them your ticket and you'll get a free tea or soft drink.

Woman: Oh, that's good. Can I visit other places after the tour?

Man: Yes, you can visit the beautiful Highclere Gardens.

Woman: Sorry, what was the name?

Man: Highclere. That's H-I-G-H-C-L-E-R-E.

Woman: Thanks, I've got that.

Man: In the garden you can see a six-hundred-year-old bridge and a really famous tree, which is eight hundred years old. Make sure you don't miss that!

Woman: Thank you very much.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

That is the end of Part Four.

[pause]

PART 5

Now look at Part Five.

[pause]

You will hear some information on the radio about a new cooking programme.

Listen and complete questions 21 to 25. You will hear the information twice.

[pause]

Woman: How do you feel when you have to cook something for friends or family? Do you feel worried or even afraid? If you do, then our new cooking programme – Cooking for Beginners – is just for you! Every week, a famous chef will teach you how to make a different dish. The programme is on every Friday, so you can invite your friends over on Saturday to try your new dish. Before the programme, we will put a list of everything you need on our website so you can go shopping and be ready to watch from three fifteen until four thirty. Don't worry if you're not a good cook – our chefs will explain things slowly and clearly. There will be six programmes in total and you will learn how to make more than twenty dishes, including snacks, main courses and cakes. So, we hope to find you waiting in your kitchen for the first programme on the fifth of July, when Chris White will teach you how to make your first dish. Happy cooking!

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

That is the end of Part Five.

You now have eight minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

Note: Teacher, stop the recording here and time eight minutes. Remind students when there is one minute remaining.

[pause]

That is the end of the test.

This is the Cambridge English: Key, Test Two. There are five parts to the test. Parts One, Two, Three, Four and Five. We will now stop for a moment before we start the test. Please ask any questions now because you must NOT speak during the test.

PART 1 Now, look at the instructions for Part One.

[pause]

You will hear five short conversations. You will hear each conversation twice. There is one question for each conversation. For questions 1 to 5, put a tick under the right answer.

Here is an example:

How many people were at the meeting?

Woman: Were there many people at the meeting?

Man: About thirty.

Woman: That's not many.

Man: No, but more than last time.

[pause]

The answer is C.

Now we are ready to start. Look at question one.

[pause]

Question 1 One. What does the woman order?

Man: Are you ready to order?

Woman: The burger looks good. Does it come with anything?

Man: You can have it with salad or chips. If you'd like both, it's a bit extra.

Woman: I'll do that. I don't mind paying a bit more.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 2 Two. What size boots is the woman going to try on next?

Woman: Do you have these boots in a bigger size? I've tried them in a thirty-seven, but they're too small.

Man: Do you want to try them in a thirty-eight or a thirty-nine? I can get them for you.

Woman: I think the thirty-nine will be too big.

Man: OK. I'll be back in a moment.

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 3 Three. Where will the man get off the bus?

Man: I'm going to the college. Where should I get off the bus?

Woman: There's a stop by the supermarket and another next to the park.
They're both near the college.

Man: I've got plenty of time, so the stop by the park is best. I can go for a walk first before I go to the college.

Woman: OK, I'll tell you when we get there.

[pause]

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Question 4 Four. How many books does the boy want to borrow now?

Boy: Can I borrow these three books, please?

Question 5 Five. What job does Mark's brother do?

Mark: He's still there but he's not a receptionist any more.

Woman: Really? Why not? He was really good at it!

Mark: I know! He's a waiter at the moment, and he hopes to be a chef one day, because he really loves cooking.

Emily: Did you have a good weekend, John? I heard you went on a sailing trip.

John: It was too expensive, so I just went fishing. I saw Pete on his bike a lot. He went all the way to the beach! What did you do, Emily?

Emily: I played tennis with my brother. I wanted to play basketball, but I couldn't find anyone to play with.

John: Why didn't you ask Jenny? Oh no, that's right, she was busy at the park. There was a skateboarding competition.

Emily: I hope she won a prize. Did you hear about Joe? He broke his leg playing football!

John: Oh no, that will stop him going swimming with me next weekend!

Emily: Are you going to the beach? I'll come with you – I love it there.

John: OK, we can ask Andy as well. He played a lot of table-tennis this weekend, but he says he wants to do something outside next weekend.

Emily: Great, I'll ask him if he wants to come. We can go to East Beach.

Woman: Do you mean the one near your college, Suzy?

Suzy: That's been there a long time, in fact they're opening another one in the shopping centre. The one I'm talking about is across the road from the newsagent's.

Woman: What does it sell?

Suzy: It sells shoes and boots as well as clothes. The only thing missing is bags!

Woman: What time does it open?

Test 2 Answer Key

Suzy: It's normally open from ten 'til six, but it stays open until eight p.m. on a Thursday.

Woman: So, is it open every day of the week? I'd like to go on Tuesday.

Suzy: That's fine. The only day it's closed at the moment is Monday, but it will open every day if it's popular enough.

Woman: Oh, OK. I'm looking for some work. Do they need any staff?

Suzy: Yes, they need shop assistants. The sign in the window says, if you are interested, go in and talk to the manager. Don't phone, because they're very busy.

Woman: Oh great, I'll just write that down. Thanks, Suzy.

Now listen again.

[repeat]

[pause]

Woman: Oh yes. Twenty-five A, Green Street? It's a lovely flat.

Man: How much is it?

Woman: Well, it was eight hundred and seventy-five pounds a month, but the price has gone down, so now it's only eight hundred and twenty-five pounds. That's a great price.

Man: Is it far from the station?

Woman: You can walk there in fifteen minutes or there's a bus which takes just five minutes.

Man: Great. How many bedrooms does it have?

Woman: There are five rooms in total – two bedrooms, a living room, a bathroom and a kitchen.

Man: It's quite big! Does it have any furniture?

Woman: There's a really nice table and a sofa, but there are no beds.

Man: That's not a problem. The flat sounds perfect. Can I go and see it?

Woman: There are people living there at the moment, but they're leaving on Friday.

Man: OK. I can meet you there on Saturday.

Woman: Monday's better for me.

Man: Perfect. See you then.

[pause]

You will hear some information for new students about a college. Listen and complete questions 21 to 25. You will hear the information twice.

[pause]

We're very lucky to have a modern sports centre for you to use. It's not expensive. You only pay seventy-nine pounds to become a member of the sports centre for twelve months, or you can pay six pounds seventy each time you go. We also have a café which is open on weekdays from ten a.m. to three p.m. You'll meet your teachers at four p.m. today to get more information about your course but if you have any questions about the college, you can speak to the receptionist, Mrs Myatt – that's M-Y-A-double T. She is here from Monday to Friday but if you can't come in, you can call her on double nine-three-six-five-four-one-two-seven-o-four. When you come back on Wednesday, you'll need to give us a photo. [pause]

Man: Sally, let's look on the Internet and see if there are any free places for you and Emma to do that computer course one day next week.

Sally: OK, Dad. Here's the information. Let's try Monday ...

Man: They've got three places then, so that's possible.

Sally: Tuesday will be better. Emma works on Mondays. Oh dear, the course is full that day.

Man: What about Wednesday? I'm free then so I can drive you there.

Sally: Let's see. It says seven places are taken and there are five left.

Man: Good. Let's ask Emma if that's OK.

Sally: Let me just check the other days first. So, Thursday ...

Man: Only one left and you need two places. So that's no good. Are you busy on Friday?

Sally: Not until seven. Oh. They've only got room for two more students.

Man: You must decide quickly or it may be full. Oh look. There are courses on Saturday too, in smaller groups of six.

Sally: And there is space for four more people then. I'll see what Emma thinks.

Jenny: No, Stephen. I just use a can of tomatoes. Some people think roast tomatoes are best, but that's too much hard work for me.

Stephen: Who taught you how to make it?

- Jenny: My aunt's friend gave the instructions to my mother, who changed them a bit, then taught me.
- Stephen: It's not too thin, is it?
- Jenny: That's because I don't use much water. At first, I used four cups, then three, but I think two is best really.
- Stephen: So, what else is in it?
- Jenny: Some butter, an onion, the tomatoes, salt and pepper, and to make it really nice, a cup of milk. It's much cheaper than cream, you know.
- Stephen: Mmm. How long does it take to make?
- Jenny: No longer than twenty minutes. You fry the onion for five minutes, add everything else, then boil for about ten.
- Stephen: So, what are we having for the main course?
- Jenny: Well, we're having fruit cake for dessert, and for main course we've got pasta. I wanted to do lemon chicken, but I didn't have time.
- Stephen: Lovely!

- Woman: Welcome to York Garden Centre! How can I help you?
- Boy: I'm looking for a plant for my mum's birthday. What's this one called?
- Woman: Sweet William. Some people think its name comes from the writer William Shakespeare.
- Boy: That's interesting. What colour will the flowers be on this one?
- Woman: This type is pink, but they can also be red or purple. It'll be very pretty.
- Boy: Good. When will the flowers come?
- Woman: Every spring. Then you need to cut them before the summer, so they return next year.
- Boy: OK. When should I put it outside?
- Woman: Well, it's August now. Wait until September to put it in the garden.
- Boy: How tall will it grow?
- Woman: Some types are only fifteen centimetres tall, but in two or three years this one'll be forty centimetres tall. Leave space for it!
- Boy: I'd like to buy it. How much is it?

Woman: The normal price is ten pounds but it's only eight pounds this weekend because we have a special discount.

Boy: Great!

[pause]

That is the end of Part Four.

[pause]

Now look at Part Five.

[pause]

You will hear some information about a day trip. Listen and complete questions 21 to 25. You will hear the information twice.

[pause]

Woman: Good morning students! I hope you're enjoying your stay here in the mountains. Now, I've got some information about tomorrow's day trip to North Lake. The bus is always very busy at this time of year, so we'll take the train. You'll see some beautiful countryside on the journey. To join the trip, please be here at one fifteen. You can have lunch in the café here at twelve thirty before we go. When we're there, you can choose to go walking with me, or fishing with Mr Thomas. But no swimming – the water's too cold at this time of year. Your ticket will cost eight pounds and you'll want some money to spend at the shop so bring twelve pounds, please. Now, this is important. We'll meet to return to the station at the end of the day outside the Aster Hotel, next to the lake. That's A-S-T-E-R. So, who would like to come?

[pause]

Now listen again.

Test 4 Answer Key

Now listen to the conversation.

- Tony: You know my after-school science club, Lisa? There's a competition with another school, and I'm in the team!
- Lisa: Well done! When is it?
- Tony: The club meets on Monday, but the competition is on Wednesday. We're going to practise on Tuesday.
- Lisa: Can I come and watch the competition?
- Tony: Yes, but it's not at the school – it's at the university, in the building near the town hall.
- Lisa: So, how will you get there?
- Tony: It's too far to walk, so we'll take the bus. The underground is quicker, but it's expensive.
- Lisa: I know. So, is it a quiz?
- Tony: Yes. It'll take about forty-five minutes for five questions on five subjects – that's twenty-five questions. There's a fifteen minute break in the middle.
- Lisa: What subjects are you hoping for?
- Tony: I'm not great at biology! I enjoy physics the most. But I think this competition will have lots of questions on chemistry.
- Lisa: Is there a prize?
- Tony: Yes. First prize is cinema tickets for everyone in the team. Much better than a box of chocolates. And even if we don't win, we can all keep our special T-shirts.
- Lisa: Cool! Good luck!
- Tony: Thanks!

You will hear a girl asking for information about a summer job. Listen and complete questions 16 to 20. You will hear the conversation twice.

[pause]

- Man: Good morning. South Field Farm. How can I help?
- Girl: I'm phoning about your job advertisement in this week's newspaper.
- Man: Yes. We're looking for a student to be a farm worker during the holidays.
- Girl: What are the hours?
- Man: You'll start at six-thirty am and finish at two p.m. There's a break for lunch at twelve fifteen.
- Girl: OK. Are you looking for anything special?
- Man: You'll be working with soft fruit, so it's important that you're careful and strong – the boxes get heavy.

Girl: Is the money good?
Man: Our farm workers usually get three hundred and twenty-five pounds a week, but in this job you'll get three hundred pounds a week.
Girl: Why's that?
Man: Because lunch is included. But you do have to pay for your bus tickets.
Girl: OK. I'd like the job. What should I do now?
Man: You need to send me your details, including your address and phone number, before the tenth of May. The job starts on the twenty-fourth of May. I'll let you know next week if we need you.

You will hear the manager of a cycling club giving some information about a bike race. Listen and complete questions 21 to 25. You will hear the information twice.

[pause]

Man: Good evening everyone, and thanks for coming to the cycling club meeting. Now, every year we enter teams in the Cardiff Bike Race, so here's some information about this year's competition. Pens ready? OK. The race is next week, on the twenty-second of September. You can't wear your normal black T-shirts and shorts because another club uses those colours. We'll wear blue instead. Make sure you pack the right ones, please. There'll be four teams with three people on each team. Steven, Petra, Luke and Alice – you've been before so you can help the others. On the day, make sure you get up and have breakfast by seven a.m., so when the race starts at eight-thirty, you're ready. At twenty kilometres, there'll be a place for snacks, with cake and orange juice. No chocolate, I'm afraid! Don't have too much or you'll feel sick. Last year's first prize was cycling shirts. This year, the winners will each get the latest sports watch! Good luck everyone!
